iati International Aid Transparency Initiative

2021 Roadmap of post-Technical Stocktake projects

	October	Novembe	December	January	February	March	April	May	June	July	August	September	October	November	December
Establish the non functional requirements that will become part of all IATI tools
Map API Gateway
API Gateway consultation with tool providers and design agreed
API Gateway work completed on tool
API Gateway launched
Publishing UX work contracted
Publishing UX work
Publishing UX insights shared
Publishing TOR agreed
Publishing options analysis/decision
Publishing tool built with testing
Publishing tool available
Semantic data layer UX project procurement
Semantic data layer UX project contracting
Semantic data layer UX project kick off
Semantic data layer UX project
Semantic data layer product TOR and draft designs
Scope of semantic database layer to be defined
Procurement
Publisher statistics: community discussions
New methodology agreed
New pages designed
New pages built
Datastore phase 5 work
Datastore in maintantence mode
Registry publishing API documentation delivered
Registry in maintenance mode
Validator decoupled from DS/becomes microservice
Validator API
Publisher XML files: draft policy for holding these															